Birds are singing round my window, Tunes the sweetest ever heard, And I hang my cage there daily, But I never catch a bird. So with thoughts my brain is peopled, And they sing there all day long; But they will not fold their pinions In the little cage of song! Richard Henry Stoddard. A DEDICATION. The sea gives her shells to the shingle, The earth gives her streams to the sea; They are many, but my gift is single--My verses, the first-fruits of me. Let the wind take the green and the gray leaf, Cast forth without fruit upon air--Take rose-leaf and vine-leaf and bay-leaf, Blown loose from the hair. The night shakes them round me in legions, Dawn drives them before her like dreams; Time sheds them like snows on strange regions, Swept shoreward on infinite streams: A DEDICATION. 707 Leaves pallid...
