Of the six thousand and five hundred buildings on this island twothirds of them are cottages and the illustrations on other pages give the stranger an adequate idea of this striking feature of the town. RESIDENCE OF SAMUEL H. KELLEY. These cottages that breathe forth in every delicate detail and elegant ornamentation the artistic spirit of the owner, become every season the temporary homes of a multitude of summer sojourners, who, while they may have no voice nor vote in the local government of the city, consider this wave-kissed island their home. One may stroll for miles along the avenues and become bewildered by the many well kept lawns, the luxuriant shade trees, the inviting resi HESIDENCE OF FREO HEMSLEY....
