

A Touch of Paradise in Hell: Talbot House, Poperinge - Every-Man's Sanctuary from the Trenches

By Jan Louagie

Helion & Company. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Touch of Paradise in Hell: Talbot House, Poperinge - Every-Man's Sanctuary from the Trenches, Jan Louagie, Away from the turmoil of battle in the Ypres Salient, the town of Poperinge developed into the nerve centre of the British sector. In the heart of this bustling town, the Army Chaplains Philip ('Tubby') Clayton and Neville Talbot opened an 'Every-Man's Club'. It was an alternative place of wholesome recreation where all soldiers, regardless of their rank, were welcome. The inspired way in which Tubby ran this 'home from home', turned Talbot House, or 'Toc H', into the best-known soldiers' club of the British Army - a sanctuary for half a million men on their way to or from the Front. The first part, Portrait of an Every Man's Club, paints a graphic picture of Talbot House against the immense background of the waste and horror of war, from its early beginnings at the end of 1915 till the private owner's return early in 1919. The connecting thread is provided by a wide selection of Tubby's letters, mostly to his mother. These are supplemented with extracts from his diaries and other wartime writings,...
